Dear Parents,

Re: Rhine Class Residential – Last Minute Reminders and Permission to Administer Medication

This is just a quick reminder of things you should know and have ready for the residential

- Any medication required to be taken during the week must be handed to Mrs Austin along with a completed Consent to Administer Medicine form, which is attached.
- If your child is travel sick please ensure medication is taken in readiness for our 9.30am departure. Please also ensure you give in medication and Consent to Administer Medicine form for the return journey.
- Please ensure all items of clothing are clearly labelled with your child's name.
- A packed lunch is necessary for Monday in a lunch box which can be washed and used for the rest of the week.
- If you choose to send your child with pocket money, please put a maximum of £5 in a named purse or wallet and hand to Mrs Weston or Mrs Austin.
- No mobile phones or electronic games are to be brought on this trip.
- Our contact number for Emergencies only outside of school opening hours is: 0790 152 2363-

Schedule for Monday 16th September (all times are approximate)
