The School photographer will visit us on Wednesday 23rd October to take individual portrait photographs. If you would like a photograph to include a younger sibling, please contact the school office and we will arrange an appointment time for you to attend. Likely time 2.45—3.15pm for sibling appointments.

Many thanks

Cooking and eating produce.

Rhine Class made delicious Tomato sauce this week which we are looking forward to having with our fish and chips at lunch time tomorrow.

After school club harvested the last of the tomatoes and pulled up the carrots which Mrs Ghale cooked up for us and we also made a delicious apple crumble what we ate with custard for our snack time!

Parents Evening—Tuesday and Wednesday next week.

Please look out for appointment times that should have been brought home this week. If you have not been given a time within your request slot we are sorry. Unfortunately in one class we had 9 requests for the 3.30—4.00 time.

We look forwards to seeing you all next week.

Young Voices Update

Tickets and t-shirts have now been ordered and we have just been notified that the Children's Music Room is now live. Children can access this from the front page of the Young Voices website.

www.youngvoices.co.uk

This is your access code 'YV2020' for your child to view all the lyrics and dance moves.

Have fun!

Whole School Home Learning

Wow what incredible places have been visited. I have really enjoyed reading the postcards and scrapbooks and talking with the children about the souvenirs they have brought in. Every child who has contributed to our home learning project will be awarded a Star Credit for contributions to the school's learning environment.

Just look how fantastic our world map is coming along!

Mrs Winterburn

A message from Beau (interpreted by Mrs Winterburn!)

I am really looking forward to meeting you all. Thank you to everyone for completing and bringing in your permission slips. So far we have 40+ replies, all really positive too. If you haven't filled it in please do so and bring back to school by 17th October.

Mrs Winterburn has been shopping and bought me a new bed and water bowl for school and I have been having a sniff to check them out.

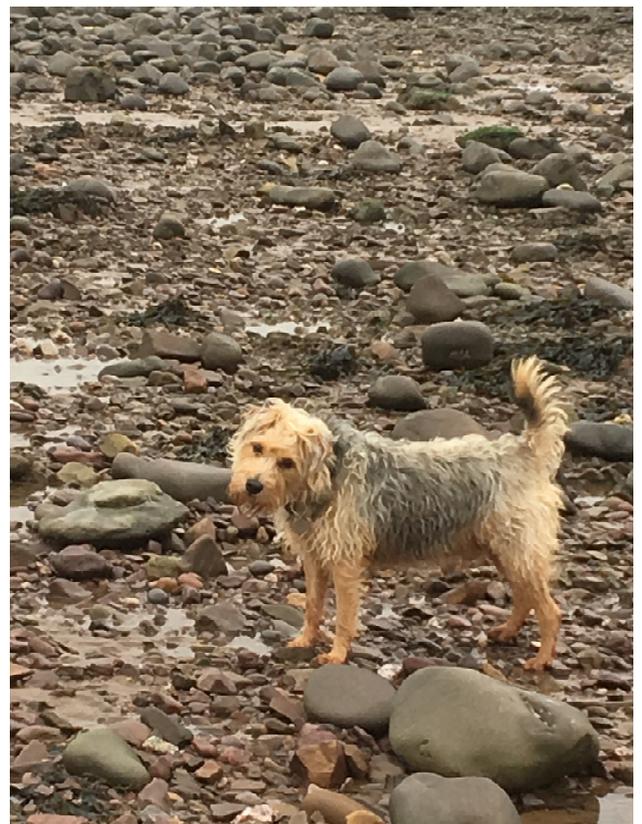

Some of the children have been asking what I look like and whether I am a boy or a girl as Beau is unusual name.

The name Beau can be a boy or a girl's name but I am a boy! On the internet Mrs Winterburn has found that Beau means 'handsome or sweetheart' and can be short for Beaugard. I am just Beau!

Here's a picture of me, what do you think?

See you all very soon

Beau

As we head towards Christmas, we hope that you will think of using The Giving Machine as a way of shopping on line. All you do is register and every time you shop on line with a number of different retailers, our school will receive a donation. This soon all adds up! In particular purchases made through Amazon will earn the school money.

Thank you for registering. It is easy and once done you don't need to do it again!

The screenshot shows the 'The Giving Machine' website interface. At the top, there are navigation buttons for 'Login as a giver', 'Login as a cause', and 'Join in', along with a search bar. Below this is a horizontal menu with categories: 'For Shoppers', 'For Causes', 'For Businesses', 'Support Us', and 'GivingLottery'. A row of partner logos follows, including Expedia.co.uk, FeelGood contacts, L'OCCITANE, MOSS BROS., amazon, JOHN LEWIS & PARTNERS, ebay, WAITROSE & PARTNERS Groceries, and Funeralcare. The main content area features a Facebook icon and the text 'Support Stanton St Quintin Primary School by Shopping Online!'. On the right, it states 'This page is managed by Anita Druce' with options to 'Edit this page' or 'Request to manage this page'. A 'Help' button is visible on the right edge. Three statistics are displayed: '30 Total Givers' (with a person icon), '1,153 Donations generated' (with a heart icon), and '£414.78 Donations total' (with a piggy bank icon). A purple button reads 'JOIN & Support this cause'. At the bottom, the slogan 'click, shop, give for free' is accompanied by a gear icon. On the left side, there are three buttons: 'Join & support' (with a star icon), 'Promotional Materials' (with a megaphone icon), and 'Quick Signup' (with a pencil icon).
